- Describe how DAPs are assessed
- Discuss in detail the three DAP tasks and assessments are associated with each

Links to relevant frameworks

The JPB continues to work towards linking tutor training to the professional development needs of tutors, e.g. the ACLF. The aim is for participants to gain in terms of their own career development as well as developing their tutoring and facilitation knowledge and skills in the context of running a DAP.

NHS Knowledge & Skills Framework (KSF):

C1 – Communication and C2 – Personal & People Development dimensions.

Advanced & Consultant Level Framework (ACLF):

Certificates are issued for attending and evaluating JPB Tutor Support Training Sessions. These sessions are named as providing underpinning knowledge and skills for elements of the JPB Advanced Practice Programme and the associated ACLF.
